

BOY OF SIXTEEN DIES FOR LOVE.

Samuel Hefflefinger, of Newville, Pa., Kills Himself with Shotgun Because His Sweetheart Smiled on Another Lad.

LEFT HEARTBROKEN NOTE.

His Father Finds Him with Great Gash in His Breast and Childish Message Scrawled to Girl Who Weeps at News.

(Special to The Evening World.)
NEWVILLE, Pa., Nov. 12.—Although only sixteen years old, Samuel A. Hefflefinger has committed suicide because of the sickness of woman, the woman he loved.

He did not come home last night, and early this morning his father went searching for him. In an open field near the house he found the body of his son, the breast torn by a fearful wound. The boy had fastened a shotgun to a wire fence, stood within a few feet of the muzzle, and pulled the trigger with a piece of wire. His hat lay near the body, and there was a note pinned to it.

Last Message Was to Her.
The father picked it up and read this message scrawled in a childish hand: "Samuel A. Hefflefinger, who has passed through all his trouble here on earth, is dead now and gone before. Let Mary Harvey read this. Think of me, Mary. It is all through you. God bless you. Remember me when you eat my turkey on Thanksgiving."

To the father who held the scrap of paper in his shaking hand, the foolish little sentence at the end seemed the most pathetic of all. His boy was sixteen years old. Yet he killed himself as a despairing man might at sixty, and wrote his farewell like a child of six.

His Sweetheart Weeps.
Mary Harvey wept with the father and mother of the dead boy to-night. She was frightened and very sorry. "It is no fault of mine," she said. "He got cross at me because I talked with Daniel McDonald last Saturday. I am so sorry, but I did nothing to make Sam take his life."

The whole town is shocked by the boy's death. Many things are said of it, but the words most frequently heard are "And he was only sixteen years old."

MARCONI TO WIRE OVER SEA.
Tests Begun May End in Wireless Trans-Ocean Telegraphy.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 12.—Marconi began tests at night last evening between the land station and Carlo Alberto. He will gradually increase the distance until the attempt is made to connect with Faldun in Cornwall, England.

BRIDGE FALLS; TRAFFIC STOPPED.

Dangerous Condition of Burnt Bridge Ties Up Five Car Lines in Williamsburg.

A portion of the new East River footbridge, damaged in the recent bridge fire, fell fifty feet early this morning. Fearing a complete collapse, the police stopped all traffic on Kent avenue, between South Fourth and South Sixth streets, Williamsburg. Five trolley car lines which pass beneath the structure were interfered with, the cars being switched off along Wythe avenue. Pedestrians are also compelled to go round by the same route.

In view of the dangerous condition of the river span, the boats of the Twenty-third and Forty-second street ferries may be stopped at any moment. It was reported this morning that late last night a boat of the Twenty-third street line while passing under the structure was struck by a falling timber. Fortunately, no one was injured.

Engineer Nichols reported to-day that the cables on the top of the towers shifted about nine inches during the fire. The main cables are practically uninjured, but the smaller ones supporting the footbridge were stretched and ruined.

A Brooklyn Lady Saves Her Husband's Life.

"They said consumption was incurable, and as my husband had that disease and different physicians failed to help him, I was discouraged.
"His disease went from bad to worse. His flesh was fast leaving him; in fact, he had lost forty pounds in weight. His breath became shorter and more labored, and the awful pains in his lungs, together with constant severe coughing spells, satisfied me that I must look beyond the ordinary physician in order to save his life.
"When I heard of the Koch Lung Cure, at 48 West 22d St., New York, he did not want to go there; but I could not afford to lose him and insisted upon his trying what I believed to be his only hope.
"We both knew that he had consumption, and as we had never known of any one who was cured of consumption except by the Koch Lung Cure, we felt that he had only this one chance.
"On the 5th day of last May, as all internal medicines had failed, we went to the Koch Lung Cure, at 48 West 22d St., New York, and he started breathing the healing, oily vapors of the Koch Cure into his lungs. He immediately felt better, and in less than one week his cough began to subside and his improvement was remarkable. He continued to gain in weight and strength, his breath and fever left him, and in less than three months he was again a well man.
"I now feel that I have saved my husband's life by insisting on his taking the Koch Lung Cure. My neighbors know that this is true, and they will tell you so.
"My husband now works every day in S. Liebmans' Sons' Brewery, in Williamsburg, and he will willingly testify to this wonderful cure.
"Every one knows how thankful we are, and in giving this testimonial we feel that we owe this much to others who are suffering as he did."
"MRS. OTTO DUEMMIG,
"24 Central ave., Brooklyn, N. Y."
